

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Students in this program receive a comprehensive introduction to law enforcement and public safety. Combining classroom instruction with hands-on learning, field trips, and interactions with professionals, students explore criminal law, policing, corrections, forensic science, and the broader criminal justice system. The rigorous curriculum provides insight into the modern challenges within law enforcement while developing a student's critical thinking, ethical decision-making, and communication skills. This program prepares students for post-secondary studies and careers in criminal justice, law enforcement, and other related fields.
